

Dear Scientists and Readers

This issue of JIA JOURNAL (IJIIA) proudly re-unites the domains of art and science in its 6. issue. Our 6. issue of Winter 2018 November/December consists of 16 original and 1 research summary articles.

In this issue of our journal which is based on interdisciplinary approaches; interactive subjects from various areas of arts and humanities such as; relations between interior architecture and color, history of architecture/restoration and culture, relations between music and society, art history and ceramics, theatre and performance, the relations between painting/ society, song-chorus/solmization, violin/solmization, painting/theatre, textile/society, architecture/urban design, British language and culture, society, textile/popular culture, stage design/philosophy, theatre/sociology, the relations between conceptual art and society, the relations between art history and painting have been covered.

Hoping that our 6. issue be beneficial for the realms of science and art, I sincerely thank everyone who has contributed. Aspiring to meet again on the 7th issue of Summer 2019 June/July, we await your esteemed studies
With kind regards,

Editor in chief
Assoc. Prof. Dr. Sibel KILIÇ
Marmara University