

Dear Scientists and Readers

JIA JOURNAL (IJIA) has the honor and joy of meeting with the realms of arts and sciences once again. Our 4th issue of Summer 2018 is composed of 14 articles.

In this issue of our interdisciplinary journal, interactive subjects of various disciplines of arts and sciences such as: the interaction between acting and respiratory system, the relationship between printing and multimedia, relationship between sociology and literature, illustration, Anatolian civilizations, pre-school education and arts education, music and philosophy, intercultural relationship between natural Stones and mosaic arts, Musical education and autistic children, geology and gemology, illustration and contemporary brand design, sculpture and Literature, acting and music, and the relationship between jewelry and health.

I wish our 4th issue to be contributing to the realms of arts and sciences and would like to present my special thanks to all contributors. We wish to meet again in our 5th issue of November/December 2018 and await your valuable studies with our regards.

Editor in chief
Assoc. Prof. Dr. Sibel KILIÇ
Marmara University